

Everyone Can Now Have the Privilege to Drive in Delaware

The Delaware Driving Privilege Card (DPC) is a valid driver license that is available to foreign Delaware residents who are unable to produce legal presence within the United States and meet certain eligibility requirements. The Delaware Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV) issues the DPC for driving purposes only. It is not a valid form of identification.

FEES

The fee for the Delaware DPC is $20.00 plus an additional $72.00 fee collected by the Delaware State Bureau of Identification (SBI) to validate your identification during the application process. The card is valid for a period of four years.

DRIVING PRIVILEGE CARD CHECKLIST

Clip out this checklist and mark off items as you complete them. When all have been checked off, you will have your Driving Privilege Card and can drive legally in Delaware!

- Get fingerprinted to validate your identity
- Contact Division of Revenue for tax returns
- Take and pass vision screening, knowledge exam and road skills test at DMV

HOW TO APPLY

Get fingerprinted to validate your identity

Effective September 11, 2023, applicants need to schedule an appointment online at uenroll.indetogo.com before proceeding to your local Delaware State Bureau of Identification (SBI) office to begin the DPC application process. SBI requires proof of identity and will collect a fee of $72.00. SBI will process your fingerprints, validating your identification. Once the process is complete, SBI will give you a document. Please bring it with you when you come into a DMV location to complete the application process. For a list of SBI locations, visit dsp.delaware.gov/state\_bureau\_of\_identification or by calling 302-739-2528.

- ✓ Have fingerprints collected. The fee is $72.00.
- ✓ Get SBI receipt

Do not lose this receipt. You will need to provide it to DMV for application purposes.

Contact Division of Revenue for tax returns

A DPC applicant must also obtain a Certification of Filing Compliance document from the Delaware Division of Revenue. This document verifies the applicant has filed Delaware taxes within the two preceding years of a DPC application. It will contain the applicant's name, the tax years filed, last four digits of their Individual Tax Identification Number (ITIN) or Social Security Number (SSN), and a document locator code. The applicant may visit the Delaware Division of Revenue's website at revenue.delaware.gov to immediately collect a Certification of Filing Compliance document or call the Division of Revenue's office at 302-577-8200 to schedule an appointment to obtain one.

- ✓ Request proof of previous two years of filed Delaware tax documents
- ✓ Division of Revenue documents contain:
  - Your name and your spouse and/or dependents
  - Year taxes were filed
  - Your and your spouse and/or your dependents' ITIN or SSN

RESTRICTIONS

- The Delaware DPC is issued for driving purposes only and is not a valid form of identification. The card bears the distinct verbiage "Driving Privilege Only" and "Not Valid for Identification" on its face.
- The Delaware DPC only guarantees privileges within the State of Delaware. Acceptance outside of Delaware is determined by each state. For questions regarding acceptance in other states, please contact them directly.
- A Delaware DPC is valid for Class D driving privileges only. A motorcycle endorsement is permitted after successfully completing the required testing. A Commercial Driver License (CDL) is not permitted.
- US Citizens and persons with valid legal presence documents are not eligible for a Driving Privilege Card.

Go to your local Delaware Division of Motor Vehicles to complete application process

- ✓ Your provided documents must be valid, original or certified, and if applicable, translated into English by a professional translator.
- ✓ Required documents:
  - SBI fingerprint receipt
  - Division of Revenue Certification of Filing Compliance document proving you filed Delaware taxes the previous two years. It must contain ITIN or SSN.
  - Proof of name and date of birth - a valid passport or unexpired consular identification document.
  - Name change documents, if applicable. In the case of multiple name changes, you must provide a document from each name change to prove the continuity of names.
  - Two separate proofs of Delaware residency. Must be postmarked by USPS within last 60 days and must come from a company/business. Personal mail will not be accepted.
    - $20.00 application fee

Take and pass vision screening, knowledge exam and road skills test

A vision screening and knowledge exam may be conducted during your initial visit. Once you have passed the knowledge exam, a permit will be provided, and a road exam will be scheduled for a future date. You must have your permit for at least 10 days before a road exam can be scheduled. You must pass:

- ✓ Vision screening
- ✓ Rules of the Road Knowledge Test
  - A DPC permit will be issued upon successful completion of the knowledge test.
  - The DPC permit is valid for six months and must be held for at least 10 days before a road test can be scheduled.
- ✓ Road Skills Test
  - A DPC license will be issued upon successful completion of scheduled road test.
